"Learning, Living, Sharing the Gospel"

May, 2010

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

With kids out of school for the summer parents and grandparents are always looking for good resources for healthy activities. I ran across this article that reminded me of one place where kids can find wholesome opportunities for fun on the internet. God bless you and your kids this summer!

JCPlayZone Update: New Online Activities for Kids

Lutheran educators and pastors are quickly hearing about JCPlayZone, Lutheran Hour Ministries' interactive Web site for kids. With Bible stories, Daily Devotions, and Christian music, kids can build a foundation of faith and strengthen their knowledge of the Bible. Besides its excellent Bible-based activities, JCPlayZone features crafts, recipes, games, coloring pages, and free e-cards to keep kids engaged in wholesome activities. Some of the games even have biblical themes.

New games include the "12 Apostles Quiz" and matching games, "Bible Baffle" and "Fill in the Blanks." These have been added to a great lineup of other favorite games, like "Leopardy," "Dino Drop," "Bramble Ramble," and the "Spanish Matching" game. Another new feature is "The Power of Prayer," a fun, animated video that teaches kids about how Jesus answers our prayers.

Many of the coloring pages depict various Bible stories that you may use in Sunday school or Vacation Bible School, and there is also a printable, customizable coloring book that you can use to promote your church or school. One church customized and printed 1,000 of the "BeeAttitudes" coloring books and then used them to invite Vacation Bible School participants to church services.

The coloring book teaches children to "Bee Happy," "Bee Joyful," "Bee Patient," and others, covering the beatitudes from Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount" (Matthew 5:3-12). The coloring book even allows
